Language, Lodge and Land Series

You are invited to experience this series of 4 interactive evenings that embrace the beauty of Indigenous spirituality

Tuesday May 23 from 7-9 PM

Reuben Quinn will lead off the series by engaging us in the mysteries of the night sky as he guides us in creating a star chart, Reuben will also give us a short introduction into the Cree language by teaching us a short prayer.

Tuesday May 30 from 7 - 9 PM

Bishop Jane Alexander begins the evening with an explanation of the connection between ceremony, prayer and reconciliation.

Marcie Esau will involve us in the language of art and how it speaks across cultural lines and breaks the barrier between past and present.

Travis Enright wraps up the evening with a presentation of some of the art that is being created right here on the streets of Edmonton.

Wednesday June 7th from 7-9 PM

Robert Grandjam Jr. leads us in an interactive evening that will inspire us to reconnect the rhythm of our lives with the land we walk upon.

Wednesday June 14th from 7-9 PM

Francis Whiskeyjack will answer the questions of how to build a sweat lodge in an urban area and the spiritual ties that sweat lodges can build.

Wednesday June 21st
